WE WILL

Have to admit the "Devil" does sometimes do good. Although we were very busy opening and putting to place a we enjoyed immensely the results of that Cylonac ad. We were much in sympathy with the one that stood with a faraway look on his face, trying to fit a caseroll lid to a sugar dish. As we selected premiums, stroking our imaginary long, gray beard we wished that we might select a thousand—at that Editor's expense.

Case of Beautiful English Ware,

ALL SMOOTH SAILING.

A. T. Williams, of Fernandina, chairman of the State Democratic executive committee of Florida, recently said that the outlook for a complete Democratic sweep at the election on November 4th was never better, and he was very much gratified thereto.

The opposition is so small and insignificant that it is hardly worth considering. This opposition is confined to four or five counties and to one or two local candidates. Such a thing as united and determined opposition to the Democratic nominee is nowhere apparent, says the chairman.

Mr. Williams has been notified of no candidate nominated by the Democratic primaries declining and the utmost confidence prevails that every nominee will be elected.

The submission of the result of the primaries seems to be almost universal and the indications are that the Legislature, consisting of a hundred members, will vote all Democrats.

It is said by old politicians that there were no such harmony in the Democratic party of Florida, and so little opposition to the nominees.

Mr. Williams predicts that very one of the nominees of the Democratic party will be elected and this is the general opinion throughout the State.

"DOOLEY" ON THE PRESS.

Here is "Mr. Dooley's" tribute to the press, appearing in his latest article—one of his best:

"The newspapers does everything for us. It runs the polis force an' th' banks, commands th' millisly, controls th' legislature, baptizes th' young, marries the foolish, comforts the afflicted, afflicts th' comfortable, buries th' dead an' roasts thim afterward. They ain't anything it don't turn its hands to frim explainin' the doctrine iv transubstantiation to composin' salaratusbasket. Ye can git any kind iv information ye want to in ye'er favorite newspaper about ye'er self or any wan else. What th' Czar whispered to th' Imp'ror William when they were alone, how to make a silk hat out iv wire mattresses, how to settle th' coal strike, who to marry, how to get on with your wife when ye'er married, what to feed th' babies, what doctor to call when ye've fed them as directed, all iv that ye'll find in th' pa-pers.

"They used to say a man's life was a closed book. So it is but it's an open newspaper."

Best line of 5c and 10c handkerchiefs at Smith & Son's.

All licenses, state, county and city, were due the first of October but as yet very few business men have renewed for the current year. In the past the county tax collector has generally called at each business place but this year the remittance must be made to him, as he will remain at his office instead of visiting the towns about the county.

We notice Geo. H. Clark's stock of goods is the finest ever seen in Daytona.

Edward Fitzgerald, editor of the Daytona Gazette-News, was a pleasant visitor to Ocala Sunday and Monday. Mr. Fitzgerald says that Daytona is building up very rapidly. That as many as a half million dollars were spent the last two years on improvements. The Gazette-News is an excellent paper and is one of the factors in aiding the upbuilding of that city.—Ocala Daily Banner.

For sale cheap, a ladies' bicycle. Address Box 200, Daytona, Fla.

Marshal Rodgers has commenced a crusade against dogs running at large without the official license tag attached to their collars, and has already shot several. Daytona is blessed with scores of many curs, and it has been suggested that a first class sausage factory would strike a bonanza in the Fountain City. There are some valuable dogs here, their owners valuing them all the way from $5 to $500, but as the Dutchman says, "They could all make good sausage meat shoulder der same," especially if they have no license tag.

Judge Stewart was a visitor to Daytona Wednesday.

Miss Ollie Erickson was a visitor to Titusville last Saturday and Sunday.

It's getting time to buy your winter suit. See Smith & Son—they're in it.

Mrs. W. W. Carter attended the camp-meeting at Titusville last Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Peck returned Thursday evening from her summer's visit in the north.

The best stock of underwear for all the family to be found in the city at Hendrick's.

Commodore and Mrs. J. G. Brown arrived from Marshalltown, Iowa, Thursday evening.

McCoy Brothers have sold the launch, "Yankee Doodle," to Louis Cowan and Samuel Jordan.

W. L. Bain arrived from Tallulah, Ga., Monday, and is getting the Breakers in readiness for opening.

Geo. H. Clark now has one of the best sidewalks in town. It was built this week, and should be an example to many others.

W. B. Chittenden and family are expected to arrive a week from tomorrow. They will spend the winter at the Park-Inn House.

Take time by the forelock and get ready for Christmas by having your photos taken at Harris' Studio. Peck Block. Phone 91.

Miss Carrie Smith was among the returning residents Thursday evening. Miss Smith has visited at Joliet, Ill., and New York City during her absence.

The mayor and marshal have been around this week inspecting the sidewalks, and will compel property owners to put them in repair where need d.

Undertaker Bingham went to Ormond yesterday and disinterred the remains of E. Y. Pinkerton, who died 18 years ago. They were shipped to Lexington, Ky.

Landlord Schmidt has been having a run of chills and fever this week. He says this is the first time in 20 years that he has required the services of a physician.

Mayor Parkinson has had three cow cases this week. The running at large of animals is becoming too frequent, and the mayor is determined to put a stop to it.

Mrs. E. B. Moore has a lot of pretty hats, and she wants to get rid of them. Her stock is still very complete, and the patterns very beautiful. The first come first served.

We regret to chronicle that Adam Schantz is not improving in health. He was taken to the hospital at St. Augustine yesterday afternoon, where he will receive the attention of Dr. Worley.

It's about time to think of having your home fixed up. Kost & Gwimer are artists in painting and paper-hanging—better consult them.

Delicious home made candy at the Gramling Bakery. Better try some of it.

A number of Daytonians are contemplating taking in the excursion to Titusville tomorrow. A special train will pass through Daytona at 9:22 a. m., and returning will leave Titusville at 10 in the evening. The fare for the round trip will be 65 cents.

You will miss it if you do not buy your dress goods of Hendrick's.

For the first time this season Daytona was visited by a northeaster this week, that came very near being a gale. The water dashed over the seawall Tuesday and Wednesday, and the wind blew with great violence. The blow was accompanied by an unusually heavy fall of rain. No damage to property resulted, however.

Call on Barnes at the Novelty Store and get fitted to spectacles and eye-glasses. A new lot just received.

Volusia County Record: "There is one trust or combination of capital which has benefited Florida and her people millions of dollars, and that is the Standard Oil Company. Mr. Flagler who owns millions of dollars of the stock of that company, has, with the money, made a once barren portion of the State bloom like a rose, a veritable paradise of the East Coast from St. Augustine over four hundred miles down the coast to below Cutler and thousands of people are locating along the line of this railroad making homes, and developing orange groves pineapple fields and truck farms. Mr. Flagler is using his great wealth for the benefit of mankind."

ANNOUNCEMENT!

Having purchased the drug business formerly owned by Mr. William Atwood, we take pleasure in announcing to the public that we will do all in our power to keep the business up to the present splendid standard, and solicit the patronage of the citizens of Daytona and vicinity.

Respectfully,

HANKINS & BRADLEY,
Proprietors The Atwood Pharmacy.

THAT MIXED-UP AD.

Nearly forty boys and girls arranged the misplaced ad. of the Mason & Wall Co. that appeared in last week's Gazette-News and handed it to Mr. Edmondson. Many had it correct and again a number left out some of the words. The sentence as it should have been was: "Mason & Wall Company have a very complete line of crockery and queensware."

The following is a list of the twelve boys and girls who were first to hand in the sentence correctly arranged, each of whom will receive a present: Winford W. Shoemaker, Iantha Bond, Joseph Brown, William Odum, Hewitt Edmondson, Inez Barron, Roberta Hobbs, Pearl Foster, Helen Babington, Beaulah Knight, Clarence Bennett, Sallie Holland.

Notice.

DAYTONA, October 23, 1902.
Notice is hereby given that the business formerly carried on by William Atwood has been sold to Messrs. W. Maxwell Hankins and I. G. Bradley, who will continue the same under the name of The Atwood Pharmacy, in which I shall have no interest, and to whom all bills should be made out on and after the above date. Persons owing bills to William Atwood are requested to pay same promptly, so their accounts can be closed.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM ATWOOD.

"PONEY" HAYWARD DEAD.

G. L. Hayward, better known to his friends as "Poney" Hayward, died at Canon City, Colorado, the 17th of this month. He went west the first of August, and had been employed by Dr. C. D. Seely until the time of his death. He went out hunting with E. F. Mansfield about three weeks ago and caught a severe cold, which developed into pneumonia, and was taken to the county hospital, where he died. He was buried by the Grand Army Post of Canon City. Mr. Hayward was very popular among his friends, and was known all along the East Coast.

MISS BOND WEDS.

Miss Sophia Bond and Thomas J. Compromp were united in marriage last Wednesday in Titusville, Fla. Miss Sophia is the daughter of Frank E. Bond of the Bond Lumber Co., and is a very popular young lady. She entered Stetson this year as a member of the sophomore class in the Academic Department but found school life too tedious so she thought she would "take unto herself a law student." Mr. Compromp is a senior in the law department of the University and expects to remain with his class until he receives his "sheep skin" in May. Mr. and Mrs. Compromp will reside for the present with the groom's mother on the Boulevard. This comes as somewhat of a surprise to many of the bride and groom's friends. Miss Sophia is a DeLand girl and was one of our "pioneer babies." She is loved and respected, not only by the old timers who petted and played with her in years gone by, but also by those who have had the good fortune to know her since childhood bidden into womanhood. The Supplement joins her army of friends in wishing her and her disciple of Blackstone a long and happy life.—DeLand Supplement.

IN MUNICIPAL COURT.

Phillip Anderson, a colored man of Midway, was before Mayor Parkinson yesterday morning charged with wife beating, and a further charge of resisting an officer. With tears in her eyes his wife related to the court how her brutal husband struck and choked her without cause or provocation. Testimony showed that Anderson choked his wife until she was unable to speak. The difficulty occurred Thursday evening about seven o'clock and attracted a large crowd. Wm. Green, the colored deputy marshal, attempted to arrest Anderson when he turned and threatened to break Green's head. Green called for assistance and Anderson was locked in jail. Mayor Parkinson fined the prisoner $10 for resisting arrest and $15 for beating his wife. To the above was added the cost of the proceedings.
